Summary

It's an absolute sin not to take this guy with the tools he has/ Off to great start with 11 home runs already and hit 2 500-foot-plus homers in recent series vs. Pawtucket/ Made several stellar plays in OF going back, in, laterally, etc./ Also threw runner out at plate with game on the line/ Plus runner thrower and defender/ When it all comes together, watch out/ Late bloomer/ Too much ability here/ Still a bit long with swing, but can't give up on him/ At least a solid 4, and I think better down the road/ Never rule out the tools, he has em baby!!!!!!!
